6. This car quote includes lease budget and salary packaging calculations based on your estimate of annual kilometres traveled. These amounts may be reconciled and varied, if required, based on actual costs. You may need to vary your salary deduction if usage estimates are adjusted.
7. Registration, compulsory third party and comprehensive insurance costs are your responsibility. It is a lease requirement that your vehicle be legally registered and fully insured at all times.
8. Should you terminate your current employment, all lease obligations novated to your employer will be transferred to you. It will then be your responsibility to meet future lease installments.
9. At lease termination, any budget to actual differences will be refunded to your existing employer to be taxed and returned to you. You authorise your employer to deduct the appropriate amounts from your pre and post-tax salary, as required.
10. As per 2010 tax law, a novated lease vehicle is a passenger vehicle designed to carry fewer than nine passengers and a load less than one tonne.
